United Way Christmas Bureau

CHARLESTON— On December 12th, The Davis Creek Nazarene Church will distribute toys to over 230 children who have been approved and invited by the United Way of Central WV's Christmas Bureau. Please note: The toy distribution will take place at Davis Creek Church of the Nazarene located at 102 Nazarene Drive from 1:00 p.m. – 3:00 p.m. United Way of Central WV will be providing cookies and hot chocolate to the families.

United Way of Central WV's Christmas Bureau was established to coordinate the efforts of the community in its holiday giving. The Christmas Bureau provides a clearinghouse for agencies, churches and other organizations providing gifts of food, toys and clothing and facilitates provision of information and training in the use of eligibility applications prepared by Christmas Bureau staff.

In addition the church's "Bread of Life" Ministry will also have their mobile food pantry available to offer food to all of the families attending the toy giveaway.

For more information about the Christmas Bureau visit <http://unitedwaycwviandr.org/> or call Barbara Mallory, Information and Referral and Christmas Bureau Director, 304 414-4405
